Camp allows for college coach to come and work with the team and help improve their technical skills and develop their tactical understanding of the game.

- Eddie Horn will bring his knowledge of team defending and attacking from U18 and 19 Arsenal coaching plus his own take on technical and tactical skills he uses.
- They will receive up to 12 hours of practical instruction (4 Day Camp) and will be exposed to college level training by a college coach.
- This camp will be used to help build the team as a team. I strongly encourage that if someone is interested in playing soccer for me at the high school level they attend this camp. For any questions, you may contact me (Kevin Hauck) at 573-263-3156 or email at kevin.hauck@republicschools.org
